Labia

THE 4th CAPE TOWN MONTH OF PHOTOGRAPHY
FILM FESTIVAL AT THE LABIA ON ORANGE
FRI 17 – THURS 23 OCTOBER R20 per movie!!

Cinema of the Voyeur: Photography in Movies* Ph: 021 4245927

This festival has been curated by filmmaker Daniel J. Harris who will be in attendance to introduce the 1st week of 6.15pm screenings Harris' exploration of cinema is also apparent in his 'found snapshot' series Man With A Camera: Out of the Past which can be viewed at Mano's restaurant 36 Main rd Green Point from the 1st Oct for The Cape Town Month of Photography.

Rear Window (1957) Labia on Orange Screen 2: Friday 17 2:00pm and Monday 20 October 6:15pm

Directed by Alfred Hitchcock. Starring James Stewart, Grace Kelly, Raymond Burr. Hitchcock's classic tale of voyeurism and murder about a wheelchair bound photographer who spies on his neighbors from his apartment window and becomes convinced one of them has committed murder.

Peeping Tom (1960) Labia On Orange Screen 2 Friday 17 6:15 pm and Monday 20 Oct 2:00pm

Directed by Michael Powell. Starring Karlheinz Bohm. Legendary English director Michael Powell ruined his illustrious career (The Red Shoes) with Peeping Tom, a disturbing film about a repressed pin up glamour photographer who murders his subjects to film their dying expressions of terror!

Avant-Garde film series 1 (two films) essential viewing for photography and art students!

Labia on Orange Screen 2 Sat. 18 October 2:00 pm; Tuesday 21 October 6:15pm; Thursday 6:16pm

La Jetee (1962) Running time 28 min

Chris Marker's classic sci-fi short remade by Terry Gilliam as Twelve Monkey's. The most famous unseen short ever made, comprised entirely from stills. Not to be missed!

The Man With The Movie Camera (1929) Running time 68 min. Dziga Vertov's magical silent documentary of the day in a life of the Soviet Union. Vertov, a Leninist propagandist filmmaker made the most astonishing experimental imagery years 50 years ahead of his time. A one and half hour collection of avant-garde and experimental films from 1894-1935 made by some of the most famous names in 20th century art and photography along with a series of unseen early shorts from the first decades of cinema. Filmmakers include Man Ray, Marcel Duchamp, Fernand Leger, Hans Richer and Paul Strand.

Blow Up (1966) Labia On Orange Sunday 19 October 2:00 pm and Wednesday 22 October 6:15pm

Directed by Michelangelo Antonioni starring David Hemmings, Vanessa Redgrave. A mod fashion photographer believes he has photographed a murder. Antonioni's swinging London 60's never looked so good!

Avant-Garde series 2 Essential viewing for artists, photographers and students!

Labia on Orange Screen 2 Saturday 18 October 6:15pm and Tuesday 21 October 2:00 pm

War Photographer (2001) Labia On Orange Sunday 19 October 6:15 pm and Wednesday 22 2:00pm

Director Christian Frey A documentary about James Nachtwey legendary combat photographer.

"In some ways Mr. Frei's portrait is exceptionally intimate, allowing us almost literally to see the world through Mr. Nachtwey's eyes. Much of "War Photographer," was recorded by a tiny video camera fastened to the body of Mr. Nachtwey's still camera, putting the audience somewhere near his right ear with an excellent view of his busy right index finger. The paradox of being immersed in the horrors of war and deprivation while at the same time remaining outside them, is central to the work he does. Mr. Frei's documentary begins with a well-known quote from Robert Capa: "If your pictures aren't good enough, you're not close enough." (AO Scott NY times)

The Eyes Of Laura Mars (1978) Labia On Orange Monday 20 October 6:15pm; Thursday 23 2:00pm

Director Irving Kershner Starring Fay Dunaway

From screenplay by John Carpenter, Fay Dunaway stars in this camp classic about a fashion photographer who sees visions of a serial killers murder through her lens. "Utilizing the actual photography of fashion god Helmut Newton, Kershner has exquisitely captured the 1970's New York fashion and disco scene . The scenes of photo shoots are particularly fun to watch, with one scene portraying a burning car crash in Columbus Circle in which the models, clad in garter belts and fur coats cat-fight before the camera. The ingenuous use of real models add the precise amount of vacuity necessary to make the surreal shot work. Another photo shoot involves a model dead from a gunshot to his heart lying in a pool surrounded by exotically dressed disco-dancing models and a throbbing disco beat." (IMDB)
